Urban League in Elgin seeks students for Job Readiness program

Elgin, IL — The Quad County Urban League is looking for students to fill its job readiness class which begins April 7.

The 6-week soft skills program offered Mondays from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. provides workforce training to students seeking employment. The program includes goal setting, resume writing, interviewing, conflict resolution, communication workshops and personal budgeting.

This program is offered at no cost for students. Case management is provided throughout the program.

To enroll, potential students must come to the Urban League, 40 DuPage Court, Suite 502, and complete an application of interest no later than March 30, 2008 by 4 p.m. Candidates must be 18 years or older and are required to provide proof of a high school diploma or General Educational Development (GED) credential.

Registration is limited.
